INDIVIDUAL REGULATED LOBBYIST - CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTION REPORT (Form #22)

Reporting Period Covered by this report: November 01, 2009 through April 30, 2010

An individual regulated lobbyist must file this report if, during the lobbying reporting period, the lobbyist has directly or indirectly made a political contribution(s) to the Governor, Lt. Governor, Attorney General, Comptroller, member of the General Assembly or candidate for election to any of these offices. "Indirectly" includes, for example, contributions to committees in support of the candidate(s), slates including the candidate(s), a PAC created to support a specific candidate(s), a PAC contribution designated for transfer to a particular candidate(s), or contribution(s) by others using your funds or funds under your control including, in some circumstances, a contribution by a family member. (Note: Solicitation or transmittal of contribution(s) by a lobbyist on behalf of a candidate(s) is prohibited.)

- A. List below the total contributions for each office holder or candidate. If a slate is involved, you may report each of the recipients with the total amount unless you are aware of a specific allocation to each candidate.
